Wasatch Storytelling Festival Workshop
Come one - Come all!
We will be having our Storytelling Workshop Series!

Come and learn to tell a tall tale, fairy tale or just a funny story like a pro.

Workshops will be held after school on Fridays from 1:30 – 2:15 pm in the Wasatch Library.

Students need to attend all workshops and festival or make prior arrangements with Mrs. Peck.

Orientation: February 26th – (Parents encouraged to come with students to this orientation.)
Workshop Sessions: March 4th and March 11th
Annual Wasatch Storytelling Festival: Thursday, March 17th @ 6:30 pm

Please fill out and return bottom portion to the library if your student is interested in participating in our Storytelling Workshops

Student’s name ________________________________
Student’s teacher ________________________________
Parent name ________________________________
E-mail ________________________________
Phone # ________________________________

We are also in need of several parent volunteers to help during the workshops AND if you are interested in being a Storyteller yourself, then email Mary Peck @ marype@provo.edu (You do not need to be a storyteller to help.)